1.The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 1-3, 8-10, 17, 34-40, 43 and 44 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Kumakura et al in view of Freeman et al.

Kumakura et al is applied generally for reasons of record, the primary reference failing to teach the provision of a mask through which the polymer film is irradiated to form surface relief thereon. Freeman et al clearly shows this and such would have been an obvious modification to the method of the primary reference to put diffractive geometry on the contact lens. It is submitted that the exact form of radiation used—ie, X-ray, ion bombardment, lithographic methods—would have been well within the skill level of the art as would using etching to form the surface relief structure. These methods are all well known in the art and one of ordinary skill would have had no problem determining which would be used most advantageously. In that Freeman teaches using a mask to make the surface relief structure, it is submitted that one of ordinary skill in this art would have found the use of a suitable mask to make the tracks/pores as obvious in the process of the primary reference. It is noted that masks are notoriously well known in the radiation/lithographic art to facilitate the formation of a desired pattern. Again, repeating the steps and using subsequent masks would have also been obvious.

2.Applicant's arguments with respect to the claims have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

In view of the amendment, Freeman et al has replaced Bawa et al as a secondary reference to teach the surface relief patterning of a polymeric film through a mask, the film serving in an optical manner as a corneal implant or adjunct. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 13, 15, 16, 41 and 42 are persuasive and these claims have been objected to. It is respectfully submitted that the additional dependent claims set forth limitations which would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of invention.

3.Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
